

DO YOU HAVE INFORMATION ABOUT

- ➔ Members working for less than the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA)
- ➔ Cheating on the OWL
- ➔ Violating UBC Constitution and NYC by-laws
- ➔ Contractors that are violating the CBA

Members & contractors who participate in these activities will be subject to charges in the District Council Trial Committee and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

To confidentially report these violations, call the NYC District Council of Carpenters Inspector General Hotline

(855) UBC-TIPS

The District Council may decide to reduce or decline to file charges against members who provide material cooperation to the Inspector General.

MEMBERS & CONTRACTORS WILL BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE

The IG office will file UBC charges against members, grievances and possible lawsuits against contractors and make criminal referrals to law enforcement when warranted.

ALL SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY WILL BE AGGRESSIVELY PURSUED

The IG office will aggressively pursue all indicators of fraud and fraudulent or suspicious activity against the union.
